Here is our prayer for the week. I invite you to contemplate it daily:

.Your time is limited. So don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't be trapped by dogma; which is living with the result of other people's thinking

-Steve Jobs

Today we join together in the Recognition that there is only One. This One as God permeates all. God is the infinite presence of Life and the unlimited expressions of Love.

I am and we are one with this Powerful Presence. We are all part of the whole that is God. The life that we live is our perfect expression of God. We reveal God's truth and love in every moment with every action.

I declare of and for this center that here and now we accept the bounty of God in our Life. We know a higher truth and embrace that teaching. This teaching of Love, Life, and Peace resonates fully in our lives. We receive in our lives an unlimited bounty of abundance, a deepened knowingness of peace, a more grand and selfless love, and a realization that we are the ultimate authors of our happiness. We choose to fully embrace these truths, and in that live a defined, trained, and happy life.

Thank you God for the miracle of my life and the lives of all around me. Thank you for providing me with a teaching that encourages us to explore and know more. Thank you for the ease of prayer and the healings that occur.

I release this prayer in the knowingness that God has already done the work. I accept the miracles of this prayer knowing that God creates even better than I could ever direct... AND SO IT IS!
