Here is our prayer for the week. I invite you to contemplate it daily:

“Perception is a mirror; not a fact. And what I look on is my state of mind reflected outward.” Frances Vaughan and Roger Walsh, Accept this Gift

God is all there is – as infinite possibility and potential. This loving energy has the power to make all things new.

I am one with the mind of God, and God always responds to the choices I make, according to what I believe.

I always have a choice! If not in circumstances and action, then in choosing my perception, what do I focus on, what do I think. As I think in the harmony with the natural goodness of life, every moment is an opportunity to experience my world as a gift. My consciousness creates my reality. I know that anything that appears as a problem or concern is only temporary. Change is inevitable and I easily and joyously accept this, and embrace life fully. Unified within the One Presence, I know I am always in the right place, at the right time. God is not limited by precedent. My experiences now are not limited by my past experiences. Every day, every moment is a new beginning if I choose. God is my source. I choose good! I accept the wonderful blessing of goodness for myself and others.

I am grateful for this awareness.

I release my word and Law acts upon it. All is made new, and I am thrilled as I see my demonstration unfold. And so it is!
