Here is our prayer for the week. I invite you to contemplate it daily:

“The fact that I can plant a seed and it becomes a flower, share a bit of knowledge and it becomes another’s, smile at someone and receive a smile in return, are to me, continual spiritual exercises.” ~Leo Buscagila aka Dr. Love

There is only One creative genius whose essence is the Source of all things. In the right here and right now, I am connected to It. This bond with the Universe is permanent and everlasting. I unify with the feeling it provides, confident in the knowing that all is well and unfolding perfectly.

In this moment, I declare that every decision I make leads me to a greater awareness of the truth. My expansion is guaranteed! The little things add up to the big things, illuminating my perfection. With each breath I take, I inhale the ability to control my mind, and get any bloated nothingness out of the way. I let go of control and dismiss anything that does not support my highest good. Love points the way and Law makes it possible.

My heart is filled with thanksgiving for the infallible principles which govern my experience: Love, Life, Light, Peace, Beauty, Joy, and Truth. Gratitude encompasses my soul.

With love, I release the words I have declared here knowing they are working perfectly through the Law of cause and effect. And so it is.
