Here is our prayer for the week. I invite you to contemplate it daily:

Like the air you breathe, abundance in all things is available to you. Your life will simply be as good as you allow it to be. -Abraham Hicks

Together we begin in the knowledge that there is only One. There is only Unity, only Source and there is only God. All that is, is God.

In this knowledge we recognize that we are one with God. Our truth is that we are inseparable from the Source and know only unity. We know that we are one with and of God.

Today, I know of and for the amazing people in this community that we live our lives to the fullest. Our lives are filled because we choose to recognize the abundance of Joy, love and peace in each and every moment. God is our Source and we enjoy the bounty that it brings. We know unlimited Health and appreciate our bodies for carrying us through this life. We experience the fullness of Love and share that gift with the world around us. We appreciate our abundance and lift our community through our works and gifts. We utilize the law to create our perfect lives with God as our Guide. We recognize that the source of all is infinite and abundant. The abundant nature of God empowers us to fully live in the here and now.

Thank You, God for this amazing life I share with this community. Thank you for a perfect law that allows us to manifest a perfect life. Thank you all for being here today and knowing that we create perfection here and now.

I release this prayer in law, knowing that as the words were spoken they were already made manifest... AND SO IT IS!
